

INCLUSIVE AND COMPETENT FINLAND

– a socially, economically and ecologically sustainable society

To face the transformation, we need policy measures that offer people a sense of security and hope for a better future.

Finding solutions in a changing world means we must be prepared to move closer to one another.

Security of subsistence, well-functioning health and social services and education lay a foundation that guarantees all people the opportunity to pursue their dreams.

Our aim is to transform Finland into a socially, economically and ecologically sustainable society by 2030.

In a Nordic welfare state, the economy is managed for the people, not the other way round.

We will build a child-friendly country.
Not a single young person should be at risk of exclusion.
Not a single senior citizen should be afraid of getting old.

Amid the transformation of working life, strong basic skills and people's ability and readiness to learn new things and update their competences throughout their lives and careers are of key importance.

Finland must be a business-friendly and competitive country where hiring staff is easy and taxation offers incentives to work and do business.

A highly educated, skilled population,
a research-oriented and enterprise-friendly atmosphere and unprejudiced use of new technologies will be the keys to growth.

An ecologically sustainable Finland shows the way in mitigating climate change and protecting biodiversity.

Finland is a constructive player that is ready to take the initiative in the European Union and in international communities.

We aim for peace, respect for human rights and cooperation between states.
